Newsletter Number 22 - 26/02/2016

News of the Week - Welcome to our new Newsletter we hope you enjoy the new format.

Fundraising News

We are delighted to have been selected for funding from the Tesco's Bags for Help initiative. Our project is to develop an all-weather path across the field. Along the path will be play equipment and seating. We also hope to develop a sensory garden near our pond.

The project will allow pupils to access the woodland area and provide a range of habitats for our science and geography work.

Pupils will also be able to use the popular woodland trail all year round for their break times, together with the chance to sit with friends or enjoy the trim trail.

The amount of funding we receive will depend on public voting at Tesco between Saturday 27th Feb and Sunday 6th March. A voting token will be given with every purchase. Please support us by voting at any of the local Tesco stores.

Would you rather have ...

A magic bag of sweets that is always full

Vega News — The Robots Are Coming!

There has been great excitement in Vega from the first day of Spring Term Two. Through our Robots topic we will be learning how to make robots with our 'Robot Wars' visitor and put them into battle! In preparation for this, we have linked our computing, geography and maths skills to explore position, direction and angles. This will help us control the robots we create. In science, we have made simple circuits to light a bulb so our robots will have flashing buttons or eyes.

We have enjoyed listening to and analysing The Iron Man text, identifying higher level, engaging vocabulary to use in our own descriptive writing. In art, we have applied our observational skills to produce quality sketches of The Iron Man. By the end of term, if you need to know anything about robots, ask a Vega learner!
