CONTEST

Young Writers Competition

CONTEST

Six years ago, Chris Evans had a dream to get children excited about reading and writing.

500 Words is now one of the most successful story-writing competitions for children. It really does not matter what their ability is.

It is simple, your child writes an original story on any subject or theme in 500 words or fewer and submits it online. If they win their story will be read live on the radio and winners will rub shoulders with the worlds biggest celebrities and pop stars.

Plus there are also many more prizes to be won.

The competition is open until 7pm on 25th February 2016.

Go to 500 words on the BBC Radio 2 website to enter.
